

Via MBTA :

The Green Line light rail service is the best way to get to Brookline. The C Line travels through Brookline along Beacon street from St. Mary's to Coolidge Corner to Cleveland Circle. The D Line travels from Chapel Street in the Longwood Medical Area to Brookline Village to Reservoir Station in Cleveland Circle. The B Line also serves as access for the northern edge of Brookline.

The Town of Brookline is also served by four MBTA bus routes: 51, 60, 65, and 66. The popular 66 bus travels through Brookline Village and Coolidge Corner on its way from Dudley Station in Boston to Harvard Square in Cambridge.

The MBTA also offers a special door-to-door service for those unable to ride conventional transit services. Reservations for "The Ride" can be made by calling the MBTA at (617)722-5123, must be made one day in advance and the cost is typically $1.25 per ride.

For more information on the MBTA schedules check out the MBTA web site, www.MBTA.com
